MATTHEW 4:19

join THE Journey

Welcome to the Journey at DFBC! The mission of our church is to glorify God by multiplying disciple- makers who invite all people to join Jesus Christ in a life-long, life-changing and life-giving journey.

To move forward in your personal journey you need to know where you are going and how to get there. God has given us his word, the Bible, to make sure we know the Way.

May this reading guide pave the way for you to follow Christ.

How to read the Bible to hear the voice of God

“Open my eyes that I may see the wonders of your law” Psalm 119:18

The Bible is not like any other book. The Bible is God’s written word inspired by his Holy Spirit pointing to God’s Living Word, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

This Bible reading plan includes Old Testament and New Testament readings everyday with Psalms intertwined. It is arranged in a canonical order. This means that the readings follow more or less the theological and chronological development in the books of the Bible in a way that points to the complementary nature of the Testaments. The Old Testament is the written account of God’s promises to his people. The New Testament is God’s fulfillment of his promises through his Son Jesus Christ.

In order to get the most out of your Bible reading, I would like to encourage you to set up apart a special time of your day to make room for God to speak to you through the passages that you will read and through prayer. Look for a place where you can give your attention to God even if for a few minutes. There is nothing more vital to your relationship with God than reading your Bible and praying.

I would like to also encourage you to have a journal where you can record your conversations with God. It doesn’t have to be a fancy one, just a notebook that you devote for this purpose would be enough. At the very least, use the right column on this reading plan to record the main idea God wants to communicate to you each day.

The following four steps are a guide that you may use to prepare yourself to listen to God. They have been followed by many Christians throughout history to experience God’s presence as they read Scripture.

- 1. Read: Spend a minute in silent prayer and ask the Lord to speak to you through the passage assigned for the day. Ask him to prepare your heart to receive his word in humility. If time allows, read it a couple of times to make sure you are listening to the Spirit’s voice. Pay attention to anything in particular that the Holy Spirit may make you aware of or draw your interest into.

- 2. Reflect: After reading the passage, go back to any section that may have caught your attention and read them again slowly. Dwell in the passage for a moment and ask the Lord to show you what is going on in the passage and what it means in its context. Ask him to show you what he wants to tell you through this passage at this point in your life. Record your thoughts and prayerful conversation in your journal for further reflection.
- 3. Respond: Ask the Lord to show you what he wants you to do in response to his revealed truth. Is there an example to follow? A command to obey? A sin to confess and abandon? Be as specific as you can possibly be. Capture your thoughts in your journal and ask the Lord to give you the courage to obey him.
- 4. Rest: Spend a few minutes in adoration, thanking God for speaking to you. Allow the word of God to soak your inner being with the peace of Christ and rest in his provision through Jesus Christ. Ask the Lord to give you the strength to abide in him today and thank him for his provision in your life through his Son Jesus Christ.

May the Lord meet you on your journey every day!
